

Discussion Questions:

1. In what ways might rules be helpful? How can they be misused?
2. Read Luke 10:25-37.
3. What does Jesus tell the lawyer about inheriting eternal life?
4. What did the Samaritan do in this story, which the others did not?
5. What does it mean that Jesus' love is merciful?
6. What do you think Pastor Mike meant when he said, "Mercy without limits is a conduit of love to others?"
7. How does Jesus' love—specifically, His perfect sacrifice—lead us to love people mercifully, without limits?
8. In what way(s) do you attempt to justify yourself like the lawyer?
9. How might God be asking you to be merciful in the way you love others?
10. How would you like God's help to love in this way?