Psalm 145

Pastor George Myers

1. What's something amazing/beautiful that you've seen recently that has grabbed you or made you stop and say "Wow" and made you want to praise God?
2. Please read Psalm 145. What specific words or phrases in this psalm show God's goodness?
3. Why is it sometimes hard to remember that God is good? How can the church/life groups help each other with this?
4. We see in the center of the Psalm that God is king. What difference should that truth make in your every day life?
5. In verses 14-16, we see God is great because he provides. What examples of God's provision do you see most in your life right now?
6. God calls us to "commend his works from one generation to another." Why do you think that's important?
7. As you think about who the next generation is in your life, what are some of God's truths that you could pass on to someone younger in your circle of influence?
